

"Be Ready to Fight, Because it's Worth It"

*Book Talk with Stacie Brensilver Berman, author of 'LGBTQ+ History in High School
Classes in the United States since 1990'*

Brensilver Berman's recent book examines efforts to make United States history classes and curricula more LGBTQ+ inclusive and the backlash against those efforts. Along with highlighting recent legislation and resources created by organizations like GLSEN, Learning for Justice, and PBS, Brensilver Berman will discuss the important role of teachers in this expanding grassroots movement for educational change.

February 15th, 2022
4pm
Live via Zoom

Register here:
<https://tinyurl.com/m29tkuyd>

This event is made possible through the generous support of LaGuardia Community College/CUNY and the New York City Council through the offices of Daniel Dromm (District 25) and Speaker Corey Johnson.

Cosponsored and Supported by: CLAGS (Center for Lesbian and Gay Studies), the Program in History, the Program in Urban Education, the PublicsLab, and the LGBTQ+ Consortium

