

LYING-IN-STATE: Contradicting Constructions of Louis XIV's Sodomite Brother, Philippe

Friday, Mar 24, 4:30pm
Art History lounge, room 3408

Domna C. Stanton
Distinguished Professor of French

Philippe D'Orléans in Armor (1715-16), by Jean Baptiste Santerre (Museo del Prado, Madrid)

RSVP at <http://bit.ly/41G464A>

Please join us in person for the first in a new series of works-in-progress talks by faculty and students in the Global Early Modern Studies certificate program. Professor Domna Stanton will present a chapter from her current book project, The Nation and Its Others: France and Frenchness in the Age of Louis XIV, followed by a discussion and reception.

And please save the date for an upcoming online event with presentations by Taylor Culbert and Ana Beatriz Mujica, winners of the GEMS student research prize in 2022 and 2023, on April 26, 6:00 PM on Zoom.