GRADUATE STUDENT SHOWCASE

Keynote presentations by Professor Felicity Scott (Columbia University) and Professor Denis Pelli (New York University)

SEPTEMBER 29, 2023

1-6PM

Segal Theatre, The Graduate Center

This event is free and open to the public. A reception following the presentations will be held from 5-6pm.

Art Science Connect will host a showcase of research by Graduate Center students working at the intersection of art and science. Ten students, representing a wide range of disciplines, will present on exciting topics, such as visualization, politics, new media aesthetics and temporality.

Presenters include Jessica Das (Biology); Benjamin Diehl (History); Tobias Fandel, Daniel McKemie, Sami Seif (Music); Sydney Harvey (Philosophy); Jianing Qi (Computer Science); Tobah Aukland-Peck, Alicia Gallant, Quinn Schoen (Art History).

We are also delighted to announce that the showcase will feature keynote presentations by Felicity Scott (Professor of Architecture, Columbia University) and Denis Pelli (Professor of Psychology and Neural Science, NYU), both of whom serve as models of interdisciplinary scholarship.
