

GETTING OVER MAX COOPER: MARCELLE KARP '23 IN CONVERSATION WITH MATT BRIM

Summer is a Beach!

Sixteen-year-old Jazz Jacobson has always spent her summers on Fire Island. This year she'll be scooping ice cream during the day and hanging out with her friends at night. Sure, she's got a crush on the hot new surfer boy, and her best friend, Macy, is still not over that jerk, Max Cooper, but what's a summer without its drama?

Boundaries are crossed and mental health is tested in Marcelle Karp's debut novel that celebrates the complicated dynamics of friendship, the ethics of care, and the heartbreaking ache of first love.
