The Provost's Office and the BRES Collaboration Hub are pleased to announce the following fellowship program, supporting early-career doctoral student research.

Established in Spring 2023, the BRES Collaboration Hub is an intellectual home for faculty and doctoral students interested in interdisciplinary, multidisciplinary, and transdisciplinary research in BRES across CUNY. The Hub is a component of BRESI—a CUNY-wide initiative with the overarching goal of reimagining and transforming University programs in Black, Race, and Ethnic studies. In 2024, the BRES Collaboration Hub was awarded funding from the Chancellor's Strategic Investment Initiative Fund to continue our work. We anticipate supporting up to ten BRES Doctoral Fellows with awards in the amount of $4,000 each for AY 2024-2025. This payment will be made at the end of Fall 2024.
